Steal a City with Austrian Air

Austrian Airlines has three new packages it's calling Business Class City Steals. Each package includes round-trip business-class airfare from New York (JFK), Washington (IAD) or Chicago (ORD), three nights in a 5-star hotel, private airport transfers in Europe, daily buffet breakfast, and all taxes and service charges, starting at $4,799. The packages are, respectively, for Vienna (VIE), Prague (PRG) and Budapest (BUD), and require at least 14 days' advance purchase. ▲
