

TravelPress.com

Number of hits for previous month: 3,650,020

Finnair takes off to the Urals

Finnair will launch scheduled passenger service to Yekaterinburg (Russia) three times per week from Helsinki on Sept. 2. Yekaterinburg, the largest city (population 1,293,000+) in the Urals Federal District in Russia, will be Finnair's third destination in Russia, after Moscow and St. Petersburg. The route, flown with Airbus A319 aircraft, will be operated in cooperation with Ural Airlines. Fly on over to <http://www.finnair.com/group> for more.