Austrian's $1,259 Vacation Package Combines Vienna and Istanbul

Atlanta (October 31, 2008) - Austrian Airlines, together with Austrian Airlines Vacation Center - operated by IMTC, Inc. - combines the elegant with the exotic in its new vacation package featuring three nights hotel accommodation in Vienna, Austria plus three nights in Istanbul, Turkey. This Combo City Steal starts at $1,259 per person, double occupancy for travel between now and December 11, and again from January 4 - March 19, 2009. Included in the package price are roundtrip air transportation in economy class on Austrian Airlines between either New York (JFK) or Washington, DC (IAD) and Istanbul with one stop in Vienna en-route, six nights hotel accommodation in a superior tourist class hotel (three nights at the Savoy Garni in Vienna and three nights at either the Kent or the Yigitalp Hotel in Istanbul), daily buffet breakfast, hotel service charges and hotel taxes.

Charming Vienna - Cool Istanbul

Both cities can be described as thrilling, complex and beautiful. Though they have much in common, such as their geographical desirability and historical significance, they also offer a great study in contrasts. As Bram Majtlis, President of Austrian Airlines Vacation Center notes: "This package allows you to sample two completely different cultures in one week: just think of the amazing differences in architecture, cuisine and music you get to experience!" For travelers who want to stay longer in one or both cities, extension nights in a double room range from $63 (Istanbul) to $71 (Vienna) per person, per night.
