

New tenants open at Milton's Deerfield Place

December 17, 2008

Sembler announced that three more tenants have opened for business at Deerfield Place, a 430,000-square-foot development in Milton.

The new tenants are: Edwin Watts Golf, Fantastic Sams and RuSan's sushi restaurant.

Existing tenants include SuperTarget, PETCO, Staples, Mattress Firm, Brooklyn Joe's Pizza, Pasta & Grill, AT&T, Planet Nail & Spa and Firehouse Subs.

Play N Trade and Sally Beauty are scheduled to open later this month; Kohl's will open in March.

"We are delighted to welcome these new businesses to Deerfield Place," said Sembler President Jeffrey Fuqua. "The residents of Milton now have additional shopping and dining options thereby reducing cross town traffic."

Additional tenants scheduled to open in 2009 include:

- ATA Atlanta Karate;
- Bath & Body Works;
- Dickey's Barbecue Pit;
- Dots;
- eTax;
- Famous Footwear;
- Hibbett Sports; and
- Philly Pretzel Factory

"Deerfield Place is a welcome addition to the City of Milton," said Joe Lockwood, mayor of Milton, adding that "the quality of construction as well as the diversity of tenants at Deerfield Place is impressive. This center will surely enhance the desirability of Milton and its surroundings as a preferred residential area – it's great for families of all sizes."

For tenant information, visit www.DeerfieldPlace.net. Deerfield Place is located near the intersection of Ga. 9 and Deerfield Parkway in North Fulton.

For leasing information, contact Lily Heimburger or Corinna Ragsdale at 404-847-1800 or visit www.Sembler.com

For information about Milton, visit www.cityofmiltonga.us, or call 678-242-2500.