

Monday, February 23, 2009, 2:05pm EST

Canton Marketplace set to open in March

Atlanta Business Chronicle - by Lisa R. Schoolcraft Staff Writer

Most of the major tenants at Canton Marketplace in Canton, Ga., will begin opening in March and April.

WThe Sembler Co. developed the $120 million, 800-square-foot center on the south side of Highway 20 east of Interstate 575 at Exit 19.

Canton Marketplace includes tenants Bed Bath and Beyond, Best Buy, Books-A-Million, Dick's Sporting Goods, Kirkland's, Kohl's, Lowe's, Off Broadway, Office Max, PetsMart, Rack Room, SuperTarget, T.J. Maxx, and ULTA.

A number of smaller retailers include Canton Jewelry, Cheeseburger Bobby's, Famous Hair, Game Stop, La Parilla, Mattress Firm, Oriental Cuisine, Rue 21, Serenity Nails, Subway, Taco Mac and Vision Works.

Outparcel tenants include Chick-fil-A, Olive Garden and SunTrust.

Canton Marketplace is expected to employ 1,200.

"Sembler has done a great job with the development of Canton Marketplace," said Canton Mayor Gene Hobgood in a statement. "All of us in Canton are excited about the job creation, the center's excellent amenities and of course the increase in our tax base."

"Especially in today's economic environment, we are delighted that Canton Marketplace will open this March as planned," said Jeff Fuqua, Sembler president. "We are certain that our extensive development will spur other growth in the area."

Canton Marketplace is part of Canton Place, a 415-acre mixed-use development which upon completion will include a residential component, office space, as well as Northside Hospital-Cherokee.