

Revamped Prado adds more stores

March 06, 2009

Publix and RBC Bank are two of the most recent businesses to open at the redeveloped Prado center on Roswell Road just south of I-285. Publix opened on Feb. 19, and RBC Bank opened the following Monday, center developer the Sembler Co. announced.

Staples opened its store at the Prado on Jan. 17, and Larry's Giant Subs opened in late January, joining Panda Express, Mattress Giant and T-Mobile as new tenants.

The demolition of the former Frankie's sports bar space began early in February to prepare for the summer opening of Taco Mac, which will be joined in the summer by Fuego Mundo, Yoreka Yogurt, Evos, Genki Sushi and Noodles, and Starbucks.

Preceding those restaurant openings will be the spring openings of Carriage Cleaners, Great Clips, and Nail Talk and Tan
