Crazy for Krakow - Austrian Airlines' City Steal Includes Air and Three Nights Hotel

ATLANTA (July, 2009) - Krakow, Poland's 1,000-year-old cultural capital and one of UNESCO's World Heritage sites, continues to draw visitors from all over the world. This stunningly beautiful city, one of the few Polish cities not destroyed during World War II, easily takes visitors from the 13th century to the present - and back again.

Krakow's growing popularity as a tourist destination has prompted Austrian Airlines Vacation Center to create a number of vacation packages that feature the historic city by itself or in combination with either Warsaw (Poland) or Vienna (Austria). This winter, the Krakow City Steal (see <http://www.austrianair-vacations.com/Krakow>) starts at $909 per person, double occupancy and includes roundtrip economy class air transportation from either New York (JFK) or Washington, DC (IAD), three nights hotel accommodation in Hotel PTTK Wyspianski (superior tourist class) in the heart of Krakow, daily buffet breakfast, hotel service charges and hotel taxes.

You can also go for a full week and combine three nights in Krakow with three nights in Warsaw @ $1,189 per person in
