

Briefly

April in Paris. And Vienna.

Austrian Airlines Vacation Center, in conjunction with Austrian Airlines, is offering a Paris-Vienna Combo City Steal vacation package that features three nights hotel accommodation in Paris plus three nights in Vienna, and starts at $1,739 person, double occupancy for travel between now and May 31, and again from August 31 to October 25. During the peak season (June 1 - August 30), rates go up to $1,979 per person. Included in the package price are roundtrip air transportation in economy class on Austrian Airlines between either New York (JFK) or Washington, DC (IAD) and Paris with one stop in Vienna, six nights hotel accommodation in a first class hotel (three nights at the GT Hotel de Noailles in Paris, and three nights at the Johann Strauss Hotel in Vienna), daily buffet breakfast, hotel service charges and hotel taxes. For travelers who want to stay longer in one or both cities, extension nights in a double room range from $151 (Vienna) to $177 (Paris) per person, per night. Some restrictions apply. For more information, visit www.austrianair-vacations.com.

On March 26, 2009, Finnair received its first new Airbus A330. This modern Airbus A330 offers the latest modern technology and is already known for its technical reliability, passenger comfort and fuel efficiency. In 2009, Finnair will take delivery of a total of five new Airbus A330 aircraft. The next A330s will arrive in April, May and June.