'Liberté, Egalité, Fraternité – et Beaucoup de Rosé!'
Celebrate Bastille Day with a Glass of Free Rosé at Social Resto Café Bar

ATLANTA – July 9, 2010 – More than 200 years ago, on July 14, 1789, a large group of Parisians stormed the Bastille Prison. This event, still remembered for its glorious rallying cry, 'Liberté, Egalité, Fraternité' (freedom, equality and brotherhood), triggered the French Revolution which in turn gave rise to modern France. Every year, the storming of the Bastille is commemorated across France as Fête de la Bastille - Bastille Day. The day is a public holiday throughout the country; in Paris, thousands of spectators line the famous Champs-Élysées to watch parades, and many more enjoy a huge fireworks display and party in the City of Light's bars, cafes and restaurants.

In one of the most authentic French restaurants in Atlanta, Social Resto Café Bar on West Peachtree Place (<http://socialintown.com>), owner Rheda Chikhaoui and his international staff celebrate Bastille Day as well. "Traditionally, the French eat a lot of grilled 'saussisons de merquez' (grilled lamb sausages) and drink lots of fresh rosé!" remembers Rheda, who grew up in Lyons, France. "And this year, everybody who joins us on July 14 to celebrate Bastille Day in Atlanta will get a complimentary glass of rosé with their dinner!"

Social is open for lunch on Mondays through Fridays from 11 a.m. - 2:30 p.m., and Social's regular dinner hours are Mondays through Saturdays from 5:30 p.m. – 10 p.m. The restaurant is within walking distance of many downtown hotels, and is one block south of the Civic Center MARTA station.
