Social Resto Café Celebrates Two Years in Atlanta by Hosting Fundraiser for C.A.R.T.
“Books & Bites Birthday Bash” Guests Invited to Bring Books for School Kids in Uganda

ATLANTA – September 21, 2010 – On Thursday, October 7, Social Resto Café Bar www.socialintown.com, the popular multi-cultural restaurant in the heart of downtown Atlanta, will celebrate its second anniversary by hosting a ‘party with a purpose’ for its friends and regulars. “All of us at Social Resto want to share our good fortune with others who deserve our support, and together we have decided to host a fundraiser for C.A.R.T.

www.cartyorkshire.co.uk, a private non-profit dedicated to building and furnishing schools in Uganda,” says Rheda “Ray” Chikhaoui, owner of Social Resto. “When we learned about C.A.R.T.’s mission from one of our team members, we knew we wanted to be part of it too.”

Everybody is invited to a fun ‘birthday’ party at Social Resto right after work, from 5:30 -7:30 pm on October 7, and guests are asked to bring one or more new or gently-used children’s books, suitable for young people between 6 and 16 years. “Any book or other donation to C.A.R.T., including school supplies and text books for teachers, is welcome. We will take care of the shipping to Uganda and will collect items for C.A.R.T. through December.”

Social Resto’s famous appetizers will be served, along with a special birthday dessert created by Chef Khaled Chebbi for all guests who join Social Resto at this combined anniversary party and C.A.R.T. fundraiser. A board member of C.A.R.T. will also be there to tell more about the organization.

Since its opening in October 2008, Social Resto has become a treasured meeting spot for in-town residents, international ‘foodies’ and music lovers. The restaurant is known for its authentic French and North African cuisine as well as its innovative interpretation of Mediterranean classics. Every month, Social Resto features a variety of live international music acts, including bands performing Andalusian music (Mediteo), jazz (Tree-O of Love with Justin Chesarek) and French chansons (The Rendez-Vous with Arnaud and Christophe – who happens to be a bartender at Social Resto as well!). DJ Salah Ananse regularly spins soul, house and hip hop while Enrique Romero plays live World Music every other Friday. Various social groups and meet-ups gather monthly, and the restaurant also hosts regular wine-tastings.

About C.A.R.T.

Christian African Relief Trust is run by local volunteers based in West Yorkshire, England. It was started in 1982. It relies entirely on voluntary contributions and does not have a salaried staff.
