Austrian Airlines Vacation Center is offering flexible 'City Steal' vacations from the U.S. to three European countries as affordable airfare-plus-hotel packages.

Basic three-night, four-day vacations to Vienna, Prague or Budapest from New York or Washington D.C. start at $1,099 per person, double occupancy, for travel between April 1 and May 13 and again between August 29 and October 29, 2011.

The $1,099 package price (which rises to $1,449 per person for travel between May 14 and August 28) includes round-trip, economy-class air transportation from either New York JFK or Washington Dulles; three nights hotel accommodation in the customer's choice of Vienna, Prague or Budapest; daily buffet breakfast; and hotel service charges and hotel taxes.

This is a night view of the center of Vienna, one of the world's most beautiful cities. The ornate twin spires of the Votivkirche are illuminated at night

Travel is valid any day of the week, subject to availability. All hotels featured in the City Steals are centrally located, superior tourist class properties, such as the Clima City Hotel in Vienna, Hotel Chopin in Prague and City Hotel Matyas in Budapest.

Customers are also able to combine all three Central European cities in one vacation with the 'Imperial City Steal' vacation package starting at $1,699 per person, double occupancy. This 10-day vacation includes economy-class round-trip air from New York or Washington, D.C., plus three nights each (nine nights total) in Prague, Vienna and Budapest, as well as rail transportation between the three cities. During peak season, the package price is $2,099 per person.

Austrian Airlines' vacation packages offer flexibility for customers to stay in Europe up to 30 days, and customers can use the hotel nights at the beginning or the end of their trips, as long as they use them consecutively. Additionally, one optional stop-over in Vienna is allowed, so customers selecting a City Steal beyond Vienna can add some extra days in Vienna on the way to or from their final destinations. (Additional hotel nights are extra). Single supplements, upgrades, additional combinations and extensions are available upon request.

Vienna has a famous amusement park called the Prater, located near the River Danube (called the Donau in German). The Prater is dominated by a large Ferris wheel

All City Steals must be paid in full within seven days after reservations are confirmed, and no later than 14 days prior to departure. Once confirmed, the packages are non-refundable, non-transferable, and cannot be changed. All packages are booked on Austrian Airlines in economy class and are subject to schedule and space availability. The minimum stay is three nights or one Saturday overnight, and the maximum stay in Europe is 30 days.

City Steals package prices include fuel surcharges but do not include US Customs/INS/APHID fees, International Transportation Tax, Passenger Facility Charges, Civil Aviation Security Fee, domestic and foreign Security and Airport Charges of approximately $160 to $220 per passenger, depending on the itinerary. Additional taxes and fees may be collected by foreign governments. All taxes, fees and surcharges are subject to change and exchange rate fluctuations and may vary on the day of booking.

Further details may be found on www.austrianair-vacations.com. For additional information or to make reservations, contact Austrian Airlines Vacation Center at (800) 790-4682, or info@austrianair-vacations.com.
