

Summer Vacation Spots

Some of Atlanta's top travel agents gave us the scoop on where they and their clients go when they want to get away

EUROPEAN EXPERTISE

WHO: Bram Majtlis, president, International Marketing & Travel Concepts Inc. (IMTC), Atlanta

HOW HE GOT STARTED: Bram's career in travel and hospitality began at 18 when he worked for Holland America Cruises. He started his own company 20 years ago specializing in European travel planning.

POPULAR VACATIONS: Bram says theme vacations throughout Europe are "in," including the path of Dracula (Romania); beer (Germany and Belgium); and wine and gourmet foods (Belgium, France and Italy).

HOT SPOTS: Brussels is popular for its trendy fashion and furniture design, he says.

UNUSUAL TRIPS: Sporting vacations, such as biking (Holland) and mountain hiking (Austria, Switzerland, Southern Germany) are selling well.

PERSONAL FAVORITES: In the U.S., Bram likes to vacation on the West Coast (Los Angeles, Palm Springs) and in Florida (Palm Beach). When traveling abroad, he enjoys towns off of the beaten path in his native country of Holland.

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Call (404) 240-0949 or visit ww.imtc-travel.cc