Free shuttle service for seniors launched by DeKalb County and Senior Connections

By nick830

Golden Shuttle Flyer

DeKalb County's Office of Senior Services launched a pilot program in Chamblee to help older DeKalb County residents get around the area. The free "Golden Shuttle" bus service got started this month, and will continue through June. The shuttle operates on the Chamblee route from Monday through Friday, 9 am – 4 pm. Stops at these locations in the Chamblee area:

- DeKalb County Board of Health, 1000 Clairmont Road
- DeKalb County Public Library, 1000 Clairmont Road
- Senior Connections / Chamblee Station
- Walmart Shopping Center (Chamblee)
- Ashford Parkside & Ashford
- Kroger and Public on Ashford Road and
- Ashford Dunwoody YMCA

Beginning Monday, May 16, a new shuttle bus will be added and will operate for a half hour.

To participate in the free shuttle service, DeKalb residents (60+) must register with Senior Connections at (770) 322-2950. For more information, call the DeKalb Link Line at (770) 322-2950.
