

Expanding the World of Possibilities for Aging

Assistant Secretary for Aging Visits Senior Connections

Published On: Sep 28, 2011

On Sept. 27, Assistant Secretary for Aging Kathy Greenlee visited Atlanta, GA's Senior Connections as part of National Senior Center Month.

This LeadingAge member is known for providing comprehensive health and wellness services to seniors throughout the area. In addition to operating 5 senior centers, Senior Connections also:

- Prepares and delivers 2,500 meals daily.
- Provides 40,000 hours in home care annually.
- Offers repair services at more than 200 seniors' homes.

Kathy Greenlee at Senior Connections

During her visit, Secretary Greenlee toured their DeKalb center and also saw first hand the organization's work for seniors through partnerships. Because of a partnership Atlanta Regional Commission, Senior Connections was offering a series of preventive health services and screenings for seniors during Greenlee's visit, including flu vaccinations and blood pressure screenings.

Categories:

Comments

Want to participate? Click here to leave a comment!

www.hill-rom.com